ARTICLE I
NAME, OFFICES AND PURPOSES

1.1 Name. The name of the Corporation is HealthONE (the “Corporation”). The Corporation currently conducts most activities under the assumed name of “The Colorado Health Foundation.”

1.2 Purposes. The Corporation is organized and shall be operated exclusively for the purposes which are set forth in its articles of incorporation (the “Articles of Incorporation”). In furtherance of these purposes, the Corporation may solicit and receive gifts, donations, grants, contributions, devises, bequests and other property, real or personal, tangible or intangible, and hold, manage, control, sell, transfer, invest and reinvest its assets.

The specific purposes of the Corporation shall be:

(a.) To sponsor, manage, operate and coordinate accredited medical education programs, including lecture and clinical instruction, for health sciences professionals;

(b.) To carry on such activities related to the promotion of health, including but not limited to education and research, which in the opinion of the Board of Directors of the Corporation may be justified by the facilities, personnel, funds or other requirements that are or can be made available;

(c.) To make grants or other distributions in furtherance of the Corporation’s exempt purposes to or for the benefit of (i) other exempt organizations described in Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, (ii) governmental organizations, if the proceeds are used exclusively for public purposes, and (iii) other organizations under arrangements where the Corporation retains sufficient control to ensure the actual use of the proceeds of the grants or other distributions is in accordance with the Corporation's exempt purpose and retains records showing the proceeds were used in that fashion; and

(d.) To engage in any and all activities consistent with or in furtherance of the above purposes.

ARTICLE II MEMBERS

The Corporation shall have no voting or nonvoting members.

ARTICLE III BOARD OF DIRECTORS

3.1 General Powers. All corporate powers shall be exercised by or under the authority of, and the business and affairs of the Corporation shall be governed by, its Board of Directors, except as otherwise provided in the Colorado Revised Nonprofit Corporation Act (the “Act”), the Articles of Incorporation or these Bylaws.

3.2 Procedures. The Board of Directors shall adopt and institute procedures governing the undertaking of its obligations and the exercise of its powers including, without limitation, procedures providing for:

- (a.) Orientation of newly elected Directors to the functions and procedures of the Board of Directors;
- (b.) A program of continuing education to be made available to all Directors; and
- (c.) The establishment and monitoring of an effective quality assessment and improvement program.

3.3 Qualifications, Number, Composition, Election, Classification and Tenure.

- (a.) Qualifications. Each Director must be a natural person who is twenty-one years of age or older. Directors must be residents of the State of Colorado.
- (b.) Number, Composition and Election. The number of individuals who shall serve as voting members of the Board of Directors shall be from twelve to fifteen as determined by the Board of Directors from time to time. Directors shall be elected by the Board of Directors as provided herein.
- (c.) Classification and Tenure. Directors shall serve for staggered terms of three years, subject to limitations set forth in Section 3.3(d). At a regularly scheduled meeting of the Board of Directors, the Board of Directors shall elect up to that number of Directors whose terms expire at the end of such meeting (the “Election Meeting”), to hold office for a term ending at the conclusion of the Election Meeting held closest to the third anniversary of when such director was appointed or elected (or shorter period as applicable). Each Director shall hold office until his or her successor has been duly elected and qualified, or until his or her earlier death, resignation or removal.

(d.) Term Limits. Directors fulfilling requirements of participation, consistent with these Bylaws and the Governing Policies of the Board, are eligible for re-nomination for up to two (2) additional successive terms, or a maximum of nine (9) consecutive years of service on the Board of Directors, except that any partial term served by reason of an election to fill a vacancy for an unexpired term shall not be counted toward such limits. In addition, notwithstanding these limits, the Board Chair may continue to serve on the Board of Directors through his or her term as Board Chair. In the event the Board decides to reduce the number of Directors within the permissible range per this section, it may decline to elect individuals to fill one or more Director positions, the terms of which are expiring at an Election Meeting, thereby reducing the number of overall Directors on the Board of Directors. In this event, the term of any Director who in a Director position that will not be filled will end at the end of his or her term. In no event may the Board of Directors reduce the number of Directors below the minimum number set forth in Section 3.3(b).

(e.) Nomination. The Board of Directors may elect individuals to serve as Directors from the slate of candidates nominated by the Board Governance Committee for such positions in accordance with Section 5.2(b), or from among candidates nominated at the meeting by individual Directors.

3.4 Resignation and Removal. Directors may resign at any time by giving written notice to the Board Chair or to the CEO, and acceptance of such resignation shall not be necessary to make it effective unless the notice so provides. Directors may be removed, with or without cause, by the vote of a majority of all of the Directors then in office at a meeting for which the notice thereof states that such removal will be considered. Any Director that resigns or is removed under this Section 3.4 or Section 3.5 shall also be deemed to resign or be removed from any office or position as committee chairman or committee member that such Director may accept or hold if, to accept or hold such position, he or she must be a Director.

3.5 Attendance Requirement. The Board may establish an attendance requirement, which will be articulated in its then in effect governing policies. A Director absent from more regular meetings of the Board than is allowed for in the attendance requirement will be deemed to have resigned from the Board, unless the Board, by majority vote, grants a waiver of this provision to that particular Director.

3.6 Vacancies. Any vacancy occurring in the office of a Director may (but need not be) be filled by a vote of a majority of the remaining Directors. A Director elected to fill a vacancy shall hold office for the unexpired term of such Director's predecessor in office.

3.7 Meetings. Regular meetings of the Board of Directors shall occur no fewer than six times per year on a schedule and at a time and place approved in advance by the Board of Directors from time to time. The Board shall designate Election Meetings in advance. Once the Board of Directors has approved the schedule, time and place for such meetings, the meetings may be held without further notice. At the Election Meeting the Board of Directors will elect the Directors, Elected Officers, and Committee Chairs of the Corporation. Special meetings of the Board of Directors may be called by the Chair, the CEO or any five Directors.

3.8 Notices. Except as otherwise provided in these Bylaws, notice of each meeting of the Board of Directors stating the date, time and place of the meeting shall be given to each Director at such Director's business or residential address at least five days prior thereto by the mailing of written notice by first class, certified or registered mail, or at least two days prior thereto by personal delivery or private carrier of written notice or by telephone, facsimile, electronic transmission or any other form of wire or wireless communication (and the method of notice need not be the same as to each Director). Written notice is effective at the earliest of: (i) the date received; (ii) five days after its deposit in the United States mail, as evidenced by the postmark, if mailed correctly addressed and with first class postage affixed; and (iii) the date shown on the return receipt, if mailed by registered or certified mail, return receipt requested, and the receipt is signed by or on behalf of the addressee. Oral notice is effective when communicated. If transmitted by facsimile, electronic transmission or other form of wire or wireless communication, notice shall be deemed to be given when the transmission is complete.

3.9 Deemed Assent. A Director of the Corporation who is present at a meeting of the Board of Directors when corporate action is taken is deemed to have assented to all action taken at the meeting unless (i) the Director objects at the beginning of the meeting, or promptly upon the Director's arrival, to holding the meeting or transacting business at the meeting and does not thereafter vote for or assent to any action taken at the meeting; or (ii) the Director contemporaneously requests the Director's dissent or abstention as to any specific action taken be entered in the minutes of the meeting; or (iii) the Director causes written notice of the Director's dissent or abstention as to any specific action to be received by the presiding officer of the meeting before the adjournment thereof or by the Corporation promptly after the adjournment of the meeting. Such right of dissent or abstention is not available to a Director who votes in favor of the action taken.

3.10 Quorum. Except as otherwise provided in these Bylaws, a majority of the number of Directors then in office shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business at all meetings of the Board of Directors. The act of a majority of the Directors present at any meeting at which a quorum is present shall be the act of the Board of Directors, except as otherwise specifically required by the Act or as specified in 5.3(b). If less than a quorum is present at a meeting, a majority of the Directors present may adjourn the meeting from time to time without further notice other than an announcement at the meeting, until a quorum shall be present.

3.11 Voting by Proxy. Directors may vote by proxy. For purposes of determining a quorum with respect to a particular proposal, and for purposes of casting a vote for or against a particular proposal, a Director may be deemed to be present at a meeting and to vote if the Director has granted a signed written proxy to another Director who is present at the meeting, authorizing the other Director to cast the vote that is directed to be cast by the written proxy with respect to the particular proposal that is described with reasonable specificity in the proxy.

3.12 Waiver of Notice. A written waiver of notice signed by a Director, whether before, at, or after the time stated therein, shall be equivalent to the giving of notice to that Director. Such waiver shall be delivered to the Corporation for filing with the corporate records, but such delivery and filing shall not be conditions of the effectiveness of the waiver. By attending or participating in any regular or special meeting, a Director waives any required notice of such meeting unless such Director objects, at the beginning of the meeting or promptly upon the Director's later arrival, to the holding of the meeting or to the transacting of business at the meeting and does not thereafter vote for or assent to action taken at the meeting.

3.13 Remote Attendance. One or more Directors may participate in a meeting of the Board of Directors by any means of communication by which all Directors participating in the meeting can hear each other at the same time. Such participation shall constitute presence in person at the meeting.

3.14 Action by Directors Without a Meeting.

(a.) Any action required or permitted to be taken at a meeting of the Board of Directors may be taken without a meeting if each and every member of the Board of Directors in writing either: (i) votes for such action; (ii) votes against such action; or (iii) abstains from voting. Each Director who delivers a writing described in this Section 3.14(a) to the Corporation shall be deemed to have waived the right to demand that action not be taken without a meeting.

(b.) Action is taken under this Section 3.14 only if the affirmative vote for such action equals or exceeds the minimum number of votes that would be necessary to take such action at a meeting at which all of the directors then in office were present and voted. No action taken pursuant to this Section 3.14 shall be effective unless writings describing the action taken and otherwise satisfying the requirements of this Section 3.14, signed by all Directors and not revoked pursuant to this Section 3.14, are received by the Corporation. Any such writing may be received by the Corporation by electronically transmitted facsimile or other form of wire or wireless communication providing the Corporation with a complete copy of the document, including a copy of the signature on the document. Action taken pursuant to this Section 3.14 shall be effective when the last writing necessary to effect the action is received by the Corporation unless the writings describing the action taken set forth a different effective date.

(c.) Any Director who has signed a writing pursuant to this Section 3.14 may revoke such writing by a writing signed and dated by the Director describing the action and stating that the Director's prior vote with respect thereto is revoked, if such writing is received by the Corporation before the last writing necessary to effect the action is received by the Corporation.

(d.) Action taken pursuant to this Section 3.14 has the same effect as action taken at a meeting of Directors and may be described as such in any document.

(e.) All signed written instruments necessary for any action taken pursuant to this Section 3.14 shall be filed with the records of the meetings of the Board of Directors.

3.15 Compensation of Directors. Directors shall not receive compensation for their services as Director. Except as otherwise provided in these Bylaws, Directors may receive reasonable compensation for services rendered to or for the benefit of the Corporation in any other capacity; provided, that any such compensation must be approved by the Board.

3.16 Participation on Committees. Each Director must, throughout his or her term as Directors, be an active member of at least one committee of the Board of Directors. If a Director is deemed to have resigned from a committee for failure to attend committee meetings, as provided in Section 5.7, the Board Chair shall review the situation and promptly make a recommendation to the Board of Directors as to whether such Director should be deemed to have resigned as a Director by reason of the Director's failure to comply with this Section 3.16. If the Board of Directors determines that such Director has not complied with this Section 3.16, such Director shall be deemed to have resigned as a Director, effective as of the date of such Board determination.

ARTICLE IV OFFICERS

4.1 Designation and Qualifications. The officers of the Corporation shall be a chair of the Board of Directors ("Chair"), a chief executive officer ("CEO"), and such other officers as determined by the Board of Directors. Officers must be natural persons who are twenty-one years of age or older and residents of the State of Colorado.

4.2 Election or Appointment; Tenure.

(a.) Chair. The Board of Directors shall elect the Chair for a term of two years, commencing on January 1 of the year following the year of election, and ending December 31 two years later. The Chair shall be elected every two years, and not later than three months before the expiration of the term of the existing Chair. The Past Chair and Chair shall cooperate to assure a smooth transition at the expiration of the term of the Chair.

(b.) CEO. The Board of Directors shall appoint a chief executive officer.

(c.) General. The Chair shall hold office for the duration of his or her term, or until his or her earlier death, resignation or removal. The Chair may not be re-elected to a consecutive two-year term as Chair.

4.3 Chair

(a.) The Chair, serving as the chief governance officer of the Corporation, shall preside at all meetings of the Board of Directors, and shall exercise and perform such other powers and duties as may be provided for in these Bylaws, or as prescribed by the Board of Directors from time to time in its Governing Policies.

In the event of a temporary absence of the Chair, the Chair may designate another Director to perform all the duties of the Chair for the duration of the temporary absence. Such Director, when so acting, shall have all the powers of and be subject to all the restrictions upon the Chair. In the event of resignation or removal of the Chair, the Board shall elect another Director to serve as Chair for the remainder of the term of the Chair who resigned or was removed.

4.4 CEO. The Board of Directors shall employ a Chief Executive Officer (CEO), with such duties, for such a length of time, and at such compensation as may be determined by the Board of Directors. The CEO will manage the day to day affairs of the Corporation in accordance with these Bylaws, the Board of Directors' Governing Policies, and, if the Board chooses, an employment agreement. The CEO shall be an ex-officio, non-voting member of the Board of Directors. The CEO shall be responsible for all employment decisions relating to any additional staff, including a chief financial officer (CFO) and any Vice-Presidents, in a manner consistent with the Board of Directors Governing Policies. The CEO may establish operating committees comprised of Board members, his or her staff and/or other interested parties for purposes he or she may deem necessary or beneficial in the performance of his or her duties.

4.5 Resignation and Removal. A chair may resign at any time by giving written notice to the Board of Directors and to the Chief Executive Officer. Acceptance of such resignation shall not be necessary to make it effective unless the notice so provides. The Chair may be removed, with or without cause, by the vote of a majority of all of the Directors then in office at a meeting for which the notice thereof states that such removal will be considered. Any other officer or agent elected or appointed by the Board of Directors may be removed by the Board of Directors at any time, with or without cause. If the Board has executed an employment agreement with the CEO, removal shall be subject to terms and conditions set forth therein. Any officer or agent appointed by the CEO may be removed by the CEO at any time, with or without cause. No such removal shall affect the contract rights, if any, of the person so removed. The election, appointment or designation of an officer or agent shall not itself create contract rights.

4.6 Vacancies. A vacancy occurring in the position of the Chair or the Chief Executive Officer may be filled by an affirmative vote of a majority of the remaining Directors. An officer elected or appointed to fill a vacancy in the office of Chair shall hold office for the unexpired term of the Chair.

4.7 Compensation. The Chair shall receive no compensation for service as Chair, but shall be entitled to payment or reimbursement of all reasonable expenses properly incurred in the performance of the officer. The CEO shall receive such compensation for his or her services as may be authorized by the Board of Directors.

ARTICLE V BOARD COMMITTEES

5.1 Board Committees

(a.) In General. The Board of Directors may by resolution duly adopted, establish from time to time, such committees as it may deem necessary to assist it in its work. Such committees shall operate under the authority and supervision of the Board of Directors and shall report to the Board of Directors. The resolutions establishing such committees shall state the purpose, authority and, as appropriate, timeline of each committee. The creation of, delegation of authority to, or action by a committee does not alone constitute compliance by the Directors with the standards of conduct described in Section 8.1 and shall not operate to relieve the Board of Directors or any Director from any duty or responsibility imposed by law or these Bylaws. Notwithstanding any other provisions of these bylaws, no committee may exercise any power or authority reserved to the Board of Directors by the Act, the Articles of Incorporation or these Bylaws, and no committee may exercise any power that may not be exercised by the Board of Directors under these Bylaws. Further, all matters that are within the authority of the Board of Directors and that otherwise may be delegated to a committee by the Board of Directors may be delegated to a committee that includes members who are not members of the Board of Directors.

(b.) Appointment. Unless specified otherwise in this Section 5 of these Bylaws, the composition of and appointment to Board Committees shall be in accordance with procedures as may be determined from time to time by the Board of Directors.

(c.) Limitations of Authority. No committee shall have the authority to: (i) amend, alter or repeal these Bylaws; (ii) elect, appoint or remove any member of any other committee or any Director, Elected Officer or employee of the Corporation; (iii) amend the Articles of Incorporation; (iv) adopt a plan of merger or consolidation with another corporation; (v) authorize the sale, lease or exchange of all or substantially all of the property and assets of the Corporation not in the ordinary course of business; (vi) authorize the voluntary dissolution of the Corporation, or (vii) adopt a plan for the distribution of the assets of the Corporation.

5.2 Board Governance Committee. The Board Governance Committee includes the functions of Board Governance, Finance and Audit and CEO Compensation.

(a.) Function and Responsibilities. There shall be a standing committee known as the Board Governance Committee, which shall be responsible for (i) soliciting recommendations from the Directors, and from other sources for candidates to serve in all elected positions; (ii) assuring appropriate and timely orientation of newly elected Directors; (iii) recommending for consideration by the Board of Directors policies, procedures and guidelines for the nomination of candidates for the offices of Directors, Elected Officers and Chairs of all committees; (iv) recommending for consideration by the Board of Directors training needs and opportunities to enhance the Board's capabilities and performance; (v) periodically reviewing the Corporation's bylaws and governance structure and making any recommendations for improvements to the Board of Directors; (vi) fulfill its oversight responsibilities with respect to the annual audit of the Corporation's books and records and the system of internal controls established by the Corporation. Specifically, the Governance Committee shall make recommendations to the Board regarding the selection and retention of outside auditors; review the results of the audit and any additional advice or recommendations received from the auditors; meet at least once each year in executive session with the auditors to receive their candid observations about the Corporation's financial condition, internal controls, tax-exempt status, and any other matters deemed "material" or "significant"; and report all findings and concerns to the Board; and (vii) recommend CEO remuneration to the Board during the month of December after a discussion of the CEO's performance.

(b.) Nomination Procedures. At least three months prior to an Election Meeting, the Board Governance Committee shall consult with the Board of Directors regarding any areas of expertise or other qualifications that, in the committee's nominating process, should be emphasized. At least twenty-eight days prior to an Election Meeting the Board Governance Committee shall give each Director notice in accordance with Section 3.9, of the slate of all candidates to be nominated by the Board Governance Committee for election as Directors.

(c.) Vacancies. If a vacancy occurs with respect to any elected position, the Board of Directors may request that the Board Governance Committee recommend a candidate to fill the vacancy, and in doing so the Board Governance Committee shall follow all policies, procedures and guidelines that have been approved by the Board of Directors. However, in filling any vacancy, the Board of Directors may elect a replacement at any meeting of the Board of Directors with only the normal notice of the meeting provided for in Section 3.9 (as applicable).

(d.) Number and Qualifications. The Board Governance Committee shall consist of up to seven members, including a Chair, elected by the Board of Directors. All members of the Board Governance Committee must be current Directors at the time of their appointment and throughout their tenure as members. At least one member must be a financial expert as established by the Board of Directors. Any Director may attend meetings of the Board Governance Committee, but no such person shall participate in deliberations or decisions regarding his or her position or tenure.

(e.) Election and Tenure. The Chair of the Board Governance Committee shall be elected by the Board of Directors bi-annually, following nomination by the Board Governance Committee, to serve a two-year term, and thereafter until his or her successor is duly elected and qualified, or until his or her earlier death, resignation or removal. Each of the other four members of the Board Governance Committee shall be appointed by the Chair of the Board Governance Committee within sixty (60) days after the Annual Election Meeting, and such other members shall serve for two (2) year terms and until his or her successor is duly appointed and qualified, or until his or her earlier death, resignation or removal.

5.3 Other Committees. In addition to the committees provided for in these bylaws, the Board of Directors may from time to time form one or more other committees, task forces, advisory and other groups composed of such members, having such rules of procedure, and having such Chairs, as the Board of Directors shall designate. The name, objectives and responsibilities of each such committee, task force, advisory or other group, and the rules and procedures for the conduct of its activities, shall be determined by the Board of Directors. Such committees, task forces, advisory and other groups may provide such advice, service and assistance to the Corporation, and carry out such duties and responsibilities for the Corporation, as may be specified by the Board of Directors.

5.4 Resignation and Removal. Any committee Chair or committee member may resign at any time by giving written notice to the Chair of the Board of Directors or to the CEO or to the committee Chair, and acceptance of such resignation shall not be necessary to make it effective unless the notice so provides. All committee Chairs may be removed at any time, with or without cause, by the Board of Directors, and other committee members may be removed at any time, with or without cause, by the person or body who appointed or elected such members.

5.5 Attendance Requirement. Each committee of the Board will establish its own expectations and requirements for attendance. Any committee member who fails to meet such requirements within any one calendar year shall be deemed to have resigned as a committee member, unless the committee has agreed to waive the requirements for the committee member for the year.

5.6 Vacancies. A vacancy occurring in any position as a committee Chair or committee member shall be filled by the person or group entitled to elect or appoint such position. An individual elected or appointed to fill a vacancy shall hold that position for the unexpired term of such person's predecessor.

5.7 Meetings and Procedures.

(a.) Each committee shall meet on a regular basis at such times and places as the Chair of that committee may determine. In addition, the committees shall meet at the call of the Chair of the Board of Directors. Notice may be given by the person calling the meeting by any means reasonably calculated to reach each committee member.

(b.) One or more committee members may participate in a meeting of the committee by any means of communication by which all committee members participating in the meeting can hear each other at the same time. Such participation shall constitute presence in person at the meeting.

(c.) Committee members may not vote by proxy.

(i) Any action required or permitted to be taken at a committee meeting may be taken without a meeting if each and every member of the committee in writing either: (A) votes for such action; (B) votes against such action; or (C) abstains from voting. Each committee member who delivers a writing described in this Section 5.7(c)(i) to the Corporation shall be deemed to have waived the right to demand that action not be taken without a meeting.

(ii) Action is taken under this Section 5.7(c) only if the affirmative vote for such action equals or exceeds the minimum number of votes that would be necessary to take such action at a meeting at which all of the committee members then in office were present and voted. No action taken pursuant to this Section 5.7(c) shall be effective unless writings describing the action taken and otherwise satisfying the requirements of this Section 5.7(c), signed by all committee members (c) are received by the Corporation. Any such writing may be received by the Corporation by electronically transmitted facsimile or other form of wire or wireless communication providing the Corporation with a complete copy of the document, including a copy of the signature on the document. Action taken pursuant to this Section 5.7(c) shall be effective when the last writing necessary to effect the action is received by the Corporation unless the writings describing the action taken set forth a different effective date.

(iii) Action taken pursuant to this Section 5.7(c) has the same effect as action taken at a committee meeting and may be described as such in any document.

(iv) All signed written instruments necessary for any action taken pursuant to this Section 5.7(c) shall be filed with the records of the meetings of the committee.

(d.) Except as otherwise provided herein or as the Board of Directors may otherwise determine, each committee may make rules for the conduct of its business. The business of a committee shall be conducted as nearly as practicable in the same manner as is provided by these Bylaws for the Board of Directors.

5.8 Compensation of Committee Members. Committee members shall not receive compensation for their services as Committee members. Except as otherwise provided in these Bylaws, committee members may receive reasonable compensation for services rendered to or for the benefit of the Corporation in any other capacity; provided, that any such compensation must be approved by the Board.

ARTICLE VI INDEMNIFICATION

6.1 Scope of Indemnification. The Corporation shall indemnify each Director, officer, committee Chair, committee member, employee and volunteer of the Corporation to the fullest extent permissible under the laws of the State of Colorado, and may in its discretion purchase insurance insuring its obligations hereunder or otherwise protecting the persons intended to be protected by this Section 6.1. The Corporation shall have the right, but shall not be obligated, to indemnify any agent of the Corporation not otherwise covered by this Section 6.1 to the fullest extent permissible under the laws of the State of Colorado.

6.2 Savings Clause; Limitation. If any provision of the Act or these Bylaws dealing with indemnification and advance payment of expenses shall be invalidated by any court on any ground, then the Corporation shall nevertheless indemnify each party otherwise entitled to indemnification hereunder to the fullest extent permitted by law or any applicable provision of the Act or these Bylaws that shall not have been invalidated. Notwithstanding any other provision of these Bylaws, the Corporation shall neither indemnify any person nor purchase any insurance in any manner or to any extent that would jeopardize or be inconsistent with the qualification of the Corporation as an organization described in Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or that would result in the imposition of any liability under either Section 4941 or Section 4958 of the Internal Revenue Code.

ARTICLE VII CONFLICT OF INTEREST

7.1 Definition. A conflict of interest arises when any “responsible person” or any “party related to a responsible person” has an “interest adverse to the Corporation.” A “responsible person” is any individual in a position to exercise substantial influence over the affairs of the Corporation, and specifically includes, without limitation, Directors, and officers of the Corporation, the Chair and members of any other committee acting on behalf of the Corporation. A “party related to a responsible person” includes his or her extended family (including a spouse, an ancestor, a descendant, a sibling, and a spouse or descendant of a sibling, an estate or trust in which the responsible person or any member of his or her extended family has a beneficial interest or a fiduciary responsibility, or an entity in which the responsible person or any member of his or her extended family is a director, trustee or officer or has a financial interest.) “An interest adverse to the Corporation” includes any interest in any contract, transaction or other financial relationship with the Corporation and any interest in an entity whose best interests may be affected by the best interests of the Corporation including, without limitation, an entity providing any goods or services to or receiving any goods or services from the Corporation, an entity in which the Corporation has any business or financial interest, and an entity providing goods or services or performing activities similar to the goods or services or activities of the Corporation.

7.2 Disclosure and Procedure for Addressing Conflicts of Interest. If a responsible person or any other person is aware that the Corporation is about to enter into any transaction or make any decision in which a responsible person has or may have a conflict of interest, (a “conflicting interest transaction”), such person shall: (i) immediately inform the Chair of the Board of Directors of the interest or position of such person or any party related to such person; and (ii) disclose any material facts within the responsible person’s knowledge that bear on the existence or extent of the conflict of interest and the advisability of the Corporation entering into the conflicting interest transaction or making the decision. If the responsible person is the Chair of the Board of Directors, he or she shall provide such disclosure immediately to the CEO. The Chair shall bring the conflict to the attention of the Board or committee, as appropriate. At any discussion of the conflict of interest by the Board or committee, the responsible person shall excuse himself or herself from all discussions and other deliberations on such transaction or decision and not be entitled to vote on the decision to enter into such transaction.

The Chair of the Board may appoint a disinterested person or committee to review any potential or alleged conflict of interest, to investigate alternatives to the proposed transaction that might reduce or eliminate conflicts, and to make recommendations to the Board of Directors or the appropriate committee. In addition, the Board of Directors may grant to the Chair or a designated committee or task force the authority to engage, and to incur the costs of, outside counsel to review any conflicting interest transaction or any other asserted conflict of interest

At least annually, each Director and officer of the Corporation shall complete and submit to the Chair of the Board of Directors a full written disclosure of all conflicts or potential conflicts that may apply to such Director or officer, on such forms and with such additional information as the Board of Directors may require from time to time. In addition, each Director or officer shall promptly respond to any request from the Board of Directors for additional information about any such conflict or potential conflict.

7.3 Approval of Conflicting Interest Transactions. The Corporation may enter into a conflicting interest transaction provided that:

(a) The material facts as to the responsible person's relationship or interest and as to the conflicting interest transaction are disclosed or are known to the Board of Directors or to a committee that authorizes, approves or ratifies the conflicting interest transaction, and the Board of Directors or committee in good faith authorizes, approves or ratifies the conflicting interest transaction by the affirmative vote of a majority of the disinterested Directors on the Board of Directors or committee, even though the disinterested Directors are less than a quorum; or

(b) The conflicting interest transaction is fair as to the Corporation.

7.4 Violations of the Conflict of Interest Policy.

(a.) If a majority of the Board of Directors or the Chair of the appropriate committee believes that a responsible person has failed to disclose an actual or potential conflict of interest, the Chair of the applicable Committee (or, if the Committee Chair declines to act, the Chair of the Board of Directors) shall inform the person of the basis for such belief and afford the person an opportunity to explain the alleged failure to disclose.

(b.) After hearing the response of the responsible person, the appropriate Committee Chair or the Chair of the Board of Directors may, in his or her discretion, refer the matter to the Board of Directors. Based upon the response of the responsible person, and after making such further investigation as may be warranted in the circumstances, the Board of Directors shall make a determination as to the existence of a conflict. If a majority of the Board of Directors determines that the person has, in fact, failed to disclose an actual or potential conflict of interest, it shall take appropriate disciplinary or corrective action, which may include removal of the person as a committee member or as a Director.

ARTICLE VIII OTHER FIDUCIARY MATTERS

8.1 General Standards of Conduct for Directors and Officers.

(a.) Discharge of Duties. Each Director shall discharge the Director's duties as a Director, including the Director's duties as a chairman or member of a committee, and each officer with discretionary authority shall discharge the officer's duties under that authority (i) in good faith; (ii) with the care an ordinarily prudent person in a like position would exercise under similar circumstances; and (iii) in a manner the Director or officer reasonably believes to be in the best interests of the Corporation.

(b.) Reliance on Information, Reports, Etc. In discharging duties, a Director or officer is entitled to rely on information, opinions, reports or statements, including financial statements and other financial data, if prepared or presented by: (i) one or more officers or employees of the Corporation whom the Director or officer reasonably believes to be reliable and competent in the matters presented; (ii) legal counsel, a certified public accountant or another person as to matters the Director or officer reasonably believes are within such person's professional or expert competence; or (iii) in the case of a Director, a committee of the Corporation of which the Director is not a member if the Director reasonably believes the committee merits confidence. A Director or officer is not acting in good faith if the Director or officer has knowledge concerning the matter in question that makes reliance otherwise permitted by this Section 8.1(b) unwarranted.

(c.) Liability to Corporation. A Director or officer shall not be liable as such to the Corporation for any action taken or omitted to be taken as a Director or officer, as the case may be, if, in connection with such action or omission, the Director or officer performed the duties of the position in compliance with this Section 8.1.

(d.) Committees. The provisions of this Section 8.1 shall also apply to the chairman or members of any committee with respect to the conduct of committee affairs, whether or not such person is an officer or Director of the Corporation.

8.2 Directors Not Deemed to Be a Trustee. A Director, regardless of title, shall not be deemed to be a trustee under common law with respect to the Corporation or with respect to any property held or administered by the Corporation including, without limitation, property that may be subject to restrictions imposed by the donor or transferor of such property.

8.3 Liability of Directors for Unlawful Distributions.

(a.) Liability to Corporation. A Director who votes for or assents to a distribution made in violation of the Act or the Articles of Incorporation of the Corporation shall be personally liable to the Corporation for the amount of the distribution that exceeds what could have been distributed without violating the Act or the Articles of Incorporation if it is established that the Director did not perform the Director's duties in compliance with the general standards of conduct for directors set forth in Section 8.1.

(b.) Contribution. A Director who is liable under Section 8.3(a) for an unlawful distribution is entitled to contribution: (i) from every other Director who could be liable under Section 8.3(a) for the unlawful distribution; and (ii) from each person who accepted the distribution knowing the distribution was made in violation of the Act or the Articles of Incorporation, to the extent the distribution to that person exceeds what could have been distributed to that person without violating the Act or the Articles of Incorporation.

8.4 Loans to Directors and Officers Prohibited. No loans shall be made by the Corporation to any of its Directors or officers. Any Director or officer who assents to or participates in the making of any such loan shall be liable to the Corporation for the amount of such loan until the repayment thereof.

ARTICLE IX RECORDS OF THE CORPORATION

9.1 Minutes, Etc. The Corporation shall keep as permanent records minutes of all meetings of the Board of Directors, a record of all actions taken by the Board of Directors without a meeting, a record of all actions taken by each committee, and a record of all waivers of notices of meetings of the Board of Directors and the various committees.

9.2 Accounting Records. The Corporation shall maintain appropriate accounting records.

9.3 Records in Written Form. The Corporation shall maintain its records in written form or in another form capable of conversion into written form within a reasonable time.
