The Colorado Health Foundation™

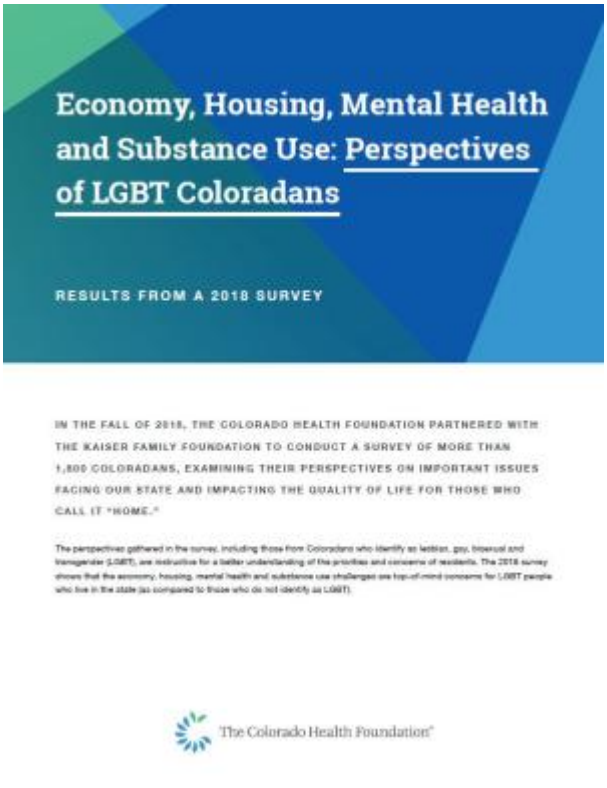

Economy, Housing, Mental Health and Substance Use: Perspectives of LGBT Coloradans

Publication Date

June, 2019

Download

Brief: Economy, Housing, Mental Health and Substance Use: Perspectives of LGBT Coloradans

Economy, housing, mental health and substance use are top-of-mind for lesbian, gay, bisexual and transgender (LGBT) Coloradans. A new issue brief with data from a fall 2018 survey shares the perspectives of LGBT people when it comes to issues impacting their health and quality of life.

Additional Resources:

- Full Report: Coloradans' Perspectives on Health, Quality of Life, and Midterm Elections
- Press Release: LGBT Coloradans' Perspectives on Quality of Life Reveal Avoidable Economic, Health Care and Housing Challenges