Let's Talk About... Inequity

2017 Colorado Health Symposium Presentations and Resources

The 2017 Symposium aimed to draw health inequity out of the shadows and cast a light on why it is more critical than ever to address it. We challenged you to join our collective effort to tackle this pressing issue and to improve the health of Coloradans today, tomorrow and for generations to come. Access resources from the 2017 Symposium, Let's Talk About... Inequity, below. Watch the archived livestream here.
