2020 has been an unprecedented year. In this moment, Pulse: The Colorado Health Foundation Poll is an opportunity to listen to what Coloradans are thinking in order to get to the heart of the issues and uncover solutions. Questions explored physical and mental health, financial and economic security, racial equity and how Coloradans are experiencing life during the coronavirus pandemic – all with the goal of understanding how policy can improve the health and well-being of people across the state. We dove into all the details in the webinar briefing.
