

Healthy Places Arvada

Publication Date

November, 2016

The focus area for the Healthy Places initiative is the southeast portion of Arvada where about 22,000 people live. This area includes historic Olde Town, older strip malls and newer big box retail, as well as three light rail stations along the Gold Line.

Introducing Healthy Places Arvada

Healthy Places Arvada: Year One

Healthy Places Arvada: Year Two

Healthy Places Arvada: Year Three

Resources

- Healthy Places Arvada website
- Healthy Places Arvada Brochure
- ULI Healthy Places Arvada: Presentation
- ULI Healthy Places Arvada: Report
- ULI Panelist Bios

Community partners: City of Arvada, Arvada City Council, Arvada Sustainability Advisory Committee, Transportation Advisory Committee, Arvada Planning Commission, Arvada Urban Renewal Authority Board, Arvada Parks Advisory Committee, Jefferson County Health Department, Denver Urban Gardens, Apex Park and Recreation District, Bike Colorado, Bike Jefferson County, Carin Clinic, Red Rocks Community College, Arvada YMCA, Living Arvada Real Estate, Realty Kee Real Estate, Jefferson County Public Schools,

Project Prepare, Arvada Gardeners, Jefferson County Head Start, Living Water Spiritual Community, Mile High Vineyard Church, Living Light of Peace Mennonite Church, Olde Town Shanti Home Yoga Studio, CDOT – Safe Routes to School, Jefferson County Aging Well Project, Colorado Parks and Recreation Association, Walk2Connect, Fit2BeKids, Sustain Arvada Committee, Arvada Bicycle Advisory Committee, Last Mile Transportation Advisory Committee and Residents.

Contact: City Manager's Office: Arvada, 720-898-7500

Related

Report

May 20, 2016

Healthy Places (Camel One)

Read more