

The Colorado Health Foundation™

Healthy Places Lamar

Publication Date

November, 2016

Located about 20 miles west of the Kansas border, the city of Lamar is the county seat of Prowers County, which has an overall population of about 12,500. In 2013, Lamar received a three-year $1 million dollar grant for infrastructure improvements and programs designed to create a healthier and more active community.

Introducing Healthy Places Lamar

Healthy Places Lamar: Year One

Healthy Places Lamar: Year Two

Healthy Places Lamar: Year Three

Resources

- Healthy Places Lamar Facebook page
- Healthy Places: Lamar - Brochure
- Read the Urban Land Institute \(ULI\) recommendations
- ULI Advisory Service Panel Report: Lamar

Founding partners: High Plains Community Health Center, The City of Lamar, Lamar Parks and Recreation Department

Community partners: LiveWell Prowers County, Prowers Medical Center, Prowers County, Lamar School District, Partners for HOPE Center Southeast Health Group, Prowers County Public Health and Environment, Lamar Chamber of Commerce, Lamar Partnership Inc., Prowers County Fatherhood Initiative, Lamar Community College and Prowers County, 15th Judicial District Probation Office.

We are committed to working with residents to participate in and lead the changes connected to our Healthy Places. There is an opportunity for EVERY Lamar resident to get involved!

Contact: Emily Nieschburg, Lamar Healthy Places Coordinator at 719-688-1265 or emily.nieschburg@highplainschc.net.

Related

Report

May 20, 2016

Healthy Places (Cycle One)

Read more