The Colorado Health Foundation™

Colorado KaleidosCOpe: Pagosa Springs Middle School - A Day in the Life of a Healthy Student

When Colorado students are living in poverty, come to school hungry or feel unsafe, it affects their ability to learn. In Archuleta School District's Pagosa Springs Middle School, students are given the opportunity to thrive in a healthy environment.

This video was originally created as part of the 2011-16 Colorado KaleidosCOpe statewide storytelling campaign.

TYPE

Story

POST DATE

May 31, 2016