01:15:14 Kerrie Joy: ^^

01:15:45 Lucia Gonzales (She, her, Resource Navigation, Boulder County,: Not voting is an announcement of refusing to use your power.

01:17:31 Chelsea Situmeang: There is also this emotion of fear when those with lots of power fear the power of people. People fear retaliation when the law gets involved.

01:17:38 Jenny Chu: Power with, not power over.

01:19:10 Nancy Molina (She/Her/Ella): Fear makes us powerless and stagnant...

01:19:28 Grantley he/they: When a voting system is designed to oppress, participating in it can feel disingenuous. Do you feel that our voting system is designed to give power to the people?

01:22:31 Nancy Molina (She/Her/Ella): When our basic needs are not met (food, shelter, safety), we can't fulfill our potential...Maslow's Hierarchy...

01:32:32 alejandro@communitylanguage.org: (Translation) From Julissa Soto: Thank you!!! These words are strong. But everyone here knows that if we act and fight for what we want, we get into trouble. There are no safe spaces for us. Not now!!! Maybe tomorrow!!!!

01:33:08 Maria Tovar; District re-engagement counselor: I think it's more that the majority feels disrespected but TBH - as a minority I feel more visible

01:33:35 Suzana Deng (she/her/ella)- CDPHE: Some are feeling disrespected because they are getting a push back against their attempt to disenfranchise and exclude others while they deem as less than equal.

01:34:03 Jenny Chu: When I think about power, I always got to Baldwin's question from The Fire Next Time: "How can one, however dream of power in any other terms than in the symbols of power?" — Baldwin in this section was talking about land, capital, guns, resources...and I constantly think about this...I think what you're speaking to is that every human being is innately powerful. I think about power from spirit, power from faith, power from our communities, power from the acceptance of our identities, power from our families, power from purpose, power of being alive...this is by NO MEANS meant to glaze over the systemic inequities though. I will say, that we might be able to feel powerful in some ways, but because the world is the way it is — it can greatly oppress those feelings (for example ^^ whoever spoke to not having our basic needs met — how can one feel powerful when you are constantly hungry or unhoused?)

01:34:40 Suzana Deng (she/her/ella)- CDPHE: Some are feeling disrespected because of the push back against their attempts to disenfranchise others who they deem as less than equal.

01:37:02 Nancy Molina (She/Her/Ella): We need to give the power back to the people...do we really have a democracy when corporations and their money run the country?

01:37:40 Kerrie Joy: Hate that I have to hop off but this is a dope conversation. Can't wait to connect with you all more and I will be reaching out to folks who have expressed interest in the chat. All power to all the people. Be blessed, fam <3

01:37:51 MBB: Is it not easier to bring down than to build up? Demolition of structures versus building of new structures

01:38:17 MBB: It takes time to build - need a collective vision of a blueprint of that structure will look like.

01:38:18 The Colorado Health Foundation: Thank you Kerri Joy!

01:39:38 Renata Hill, Moodfuel News: YES exactly

01:39:47 Lucia Gonzales (She, her, Resource Navigation, Boulder County,: Yes. I see what Karen stated.

Stating or writing things down from an organization is not enough.

01:39:56 Thai Nguyen, she/her/chi: Action

01:40:00 Jen Horne (she/her): YESS!!

01:40:01 Sean Taplin (any): material work is essential

01:40:12 Nancy Molina (She/Her/Ella): Absolutely Eric!! Can we achieve equity without justice?

01:40:47 Lucia Gonzales (She, her, Resource Navigation, Boulder County,: Yes. Mr. Liu. I agree. we need not only acknowledge, but what else can be done or continue to do...

01:41:46 Thai Nguyen, she/her/chi: Broken treaties

01:44:52 Laura Gabbay: I see a correlation between our hope and the age of our country, 246 years old. Vs. China, Russia, et al that are more than 5,000 years old. Are we naïve?

01:44:58 Benita Duran, National Civic League: To Karen's point- it was a painful blip. Too short of a moment in time. Cities dusted off statements and posted equity statements and plans on web sites. What has endured are all the tv and print ads we see of mixed race couples smiling and selling cars and insurance. Shallowness. Change is hard.

01:45:48 Rosine Bouobda: kind of like many institutions are feeling tired of the pandemic aid/programs that help LMI households and are ready to do back to the status quo....

01:45:56 Nancy Molina (She/Her/Ella): Those in power will always fight to keep their power...

01:47:21 Lucia Gonzales (She, her, Resource Navigation, Boulder County,: Organizations and laws speak about accountability, but promises of equity are never held to account. Money allows commitment to dissipate/how we see and perceive what was meant by any treaties, laws, or who is enforced under the law.

01:47:35 Casey Thomas: Speaking of Land Back, there's a campaign now to bring Native communities into greater power and leadership of national parks system!

01:48:01 Casey Thomas: <https://actionnetwork.org/forms/sign-now-to-tell-national-park-service-director-chuck-sams-its-time-to-re-indigenize-national-parks>

01:48:05 Jenny Chu: ^^

01:48:29 Angelle Fother, Principal | Kindred Communications: Meet at the place of our common needs!

01:50:51 The Colorado Health Foundation: Casey Thomas - thanks for sharing!

01:53:15 Julissa Soto: His talk is wonderful but not a reality for many of us!!!

01:54:58 Julissa Soto: Love that you had an answer for me!!! Usually people run from my comments.

01:55:43 Julissa Soto: Yes Mijo!!! Preach!!!

01:55:50 Nancy Molina (She/Her/Ella): I love this discussion!! Thank you so much!! In the San Luis Valley, we are trying to start a regional health equity coalition...to solidify our voice and power.

01:55:54 Mia Ramirez: TQM Julissa!

01:56:00 Julissa Soto: ♥

01:56:40 Renata Hill, Moodfuel News:@Nancy, I'm interested. Do you have a contact?

01:56:53 Julissa Soto: Nancy Molina.... Can you include me?

01:57:02 Nancy Molina (She/Her/Ella): Nancy.molina@state.co.us

01:57:08 Renata Hill, Moodfuel News:Cool, thx

01:57:55 Nancy Molina (She/Her/Ella): Thank you!!

01:58:02 Emily Jagers (she/her): Same Nancy!! I'm working on the same thing in Fort Collins around repro rights

01:58:02 Pilar De Jesus: Nancy Molina, that sounds wonderful!

01:58:25 Lupita Garcia She/her Alamosa: Nancy Molina, I am in the SLV also. Lupita Garcia ERC Alamosa

01:58:59 Julissa Soto: Guys can you use your power an invite me to your groups?
Julissamolinasoto@gmail.com

01:59:02 Lucia Gonzales (She, her, Resource Navigation, Boulder County,: lgonzales@bouldercounty.org

01:59:38 Kale McMonagle (she/her): Warm Cookies of the Revolution is a local, CO org that is doing similar things to what Eric is talking about <https://www.warmcookiesoftherevolution.org/>

02:00:03 Dana Maestas: Nancy, I am in the Valley. Count me in!

02:00:18 Dana Maestas: ddvmaestas@gmail.com

02:00:28 Julissa Soto: Gracias Karen!!!♥

02:01:19 Julissa Soto: Eric, I really like you!!! Easy to understand. Great personality and Guapo!!! You got the power!!!

02:01:28 Meghan Jordan: <https://citizenuniversity.us/programs/civic-saturday-fellowship/>

02:01:30 Nancy Molina (She/Her/Ella): I will follow up with everyone who has showed interested.

02:02:21 Curt Garrett: Please provide an ASL interpreter in future meetings. Closed caption does not work for many deaf individuals. ASL is a totally different language than English as much as Spanish is. Many deaf people do not read English or any other language. Thank you.

02:03:10 Nancy Molina (She/Her/Ella): I firmly believe that we as a society need to heal from all the trauma we have endured and we also at the same time, have to shift power and help others see their own power...

02:03:49 Renata Hill, Moodfuel News:@Nancy YASSS

02:03:49 Erin Zeiner: This is fantastic! Thank you.

02:03:53 Eric Liu: www.citizenuniversity.us

02:04:00 Courtney Crum: Thank you. Have to leave.

02:04:11 Eric Liu: Betterargumfents.org

02:04:20 Dwinita Mosby Tyler: Thank you for a wonderful dialogue.

02:04:21 Jenny Chu: There's a great Hidden Brain podcast about how if you mirror and validate the other person, even if you don't agree with them — the other person becomes more open to your POV/position.

02:04:30 Renata Hill, Moodfuel News: Thank you

02:04:33 Lucia Gonzales (She, her, Resource Navigation, Boulder County,: Yes. I truly believe everyone is eventually traumatized. it is part of growing and continuous learning!

02:04:39 Rosine Bouobda: Thank you !!

02:04:47 Seth Ehrlich: Thank you for the incredible conversation today and incredible connection. This was power.

02:04:49 Rachel Mondragon: Thank you.

02:04:52 Fran Petonic: Excellent presentation and appreciated the chat comments as well

02:04:53 Michelle Obert: thank you

02:04:55 Melissa Leal - she/her/hers: Thank you!

02:04:58 mariaberger: Thank you for hosting this! It was very inspirational!

02:05:00 Trena Moya (she/her): Thank you Eric, this has been a great discussion & reminder that we all have power & the capacity to share/grow it

02:05:01 Rachael Campbell: Thank you very much!

02:05:01 Jen Horne (she/her): This was great. Thank you!

02:05:02 Jenny Chu: Thank you Eric, and to the foundation for hosting this conversation!

02:05:15 nicole sager: Thank you!!! Fantastic ideas. Now time for action!

02:05:16 Eunice (she/her): Thank you so much!

02:05:16 Roxanne Eflin: Superb conversation and a call to action. Thank you, Eric. Stunning.

02:05:19 Dana Maestas: Thank you! This was a great presentation!

02:05:20 German Zarate-Bohorquez: Excellent presentation! Thank you Eric and Karen and the team TCHF!
